

CHANGES TO GOLD SEAL SCHEDULED For 2017

CURRENT

TRADES PERSON QUALIFICATION:

Standalone section of the application

EDUCATION & TRAINING

FORMAL EDUCATION CREDIT ALLOCATION:

Grade 12	5 credits
Technician/Technologist Diploma	25 credits
Technician or Technologist Degree	30 credits
University Degree (Industry Related)	35 credits
Construction Management Degree	50 credits

RELATED MANAGEMENT SKILLS:

Standalone section of the application, credits allocated for skills in one of the other certifiable designations

MANDATORY EDUCATION RELATED TO DESIGNATION

none

NEW INITIATIVES FOR 2017

Mandatory Education – Industry Ethics Course (all designations) January 1, 2017

Online Examinations – October 20, 2017 Exam

Foreman Designation – April 18, 2017

Mandatory Education by designation – April 18, 2017

Student Designation – September 2018

Reduction of Gold Seal Intern Application fee – from $500 to $100 January 1, 2017

NEW SPRING 2017

TRADES PERSON QUALIFICATION:

Has been moved to Education Section

EDUCATION & TRAINING

FORMAL EDUCATION CREDIT ALLOCATION:

Tradesperson Qualification (ticket)	10 credits
Technician/Technologist Diploma	20 credits
Industry Related University Degree	30 credits
Construction Management Degree	40 credits

RELATED MANAGEMENT SKILLS:

Removed from the application

MANDATORY EDUCATION RELATED TO DESIGNATION

All applicants must have a minimum of 2 credits in one of the following areas as part of their education requirement:

Estimators: measurement of construction work, drawings & specifications, construction contracts, pricing/bidding, construction documents, regulatory codes, scheduling communication.

Superintendents: management of human resources in the construction industry, construction jobsite controls and planning and scheduling.

Project Managers/Owner's Construction Managers: law and contracts in the construction industry, construction planning and scheduling, project management and project costing control/accounting.

Foreman: Construction 101 and Leadership for Safety Excellence